HERE'S EVERYTHING YOU WANT TO KNOW ABOUT THAT CAMPAIGN FOR NEW COLLEGE

Having learned their A. B. C.'s. Memphians who are to play the important campaign for the new college will be called upon to educate themselves in "The School Quiz." a series of questions and answers prepared by campaign headquarters to help campaign workers convince dubious ones of the value of the educational institution to Memphis.

The school quiz consists.

The school quiz consists of 29 ques-tions and answers, seven of which are printed here. The questions are those that are expected to be asked campaign workers and the answers represent the best thought of members of the cam-paign committee. The questions and answers consti-tute a lineral education in themselves, and a perusal will give Memphians, a far more complete conception of the community's advantages and require-ments than is possessed by most citi-zens.

zens.

The quix follows:

1.—What is the educational status of Memphis?

Memphis has many educational advantages. Memphis has a spiendid public school system, preparatory schools professional schools and a Normal school. But Memphis has no college of arts and science.

2.—Why does Memphis need a college? The boys and girls of Memphis and surrounding territory after completing their public school and preparatory work must either go elsewhere to Ampleta cer public school and preparatory work use either go elsewhere to complete ser education or discentinue to be education when it is far from complete to students who exter the professional shools must go elsewhere first for colege training before they can secure to degrees of the professional schools. I like the compare with the resultance of the professional schools. 2.—How does Memphis compare with other Southern cities in this respect? Within a radius of 50 miles Atlanta has five colleges, Nashville has five colleges, Birmingham has three colleges, Birmingham has three colleges, Memphis has none. Within a radius of 100 miles Atlanta has 10 colleges, Nashville has eight oclleges, Birmingham has five colleges, There is only one college within $5 miles of Memphis compare with other cities of the country?

According to the reports of the general education board, Memphis is the only large city in the country without a college. Memphis is the center of an area more barren of colleges than any res more barren of colleges than any -What is the situation in Tennes

There are 14 colleges in Tennessee giving degrees to men. Only one of these is in West Tennessee. There are twice as many boys and girls from East Tennessee or Middle Tennessee attending college than from West Tennessee or the same basis of population.

6 -What relation does travel have to ollege attendance? Investigation reveals the fact that 70 per cent of college students travel less than 100 miles to attend college. The presence of the college in the community is a great meentive. The establishment of a college in Memphis would increase the number of trained college students more than 100 per cent. 7.—What is the financial value of education to the individual?

quires 2,160 days. Education is there-fore worth more than $10 per day to the individual student.

PREPARE FOR OPENING

CLARKSDALE, Miss., Sept. 12. (Spl.)

Tomorrow will see the opening of the new school term, and parents, children and teachers are busily engaged in preparations for the event. The school buildings, grounds, teachers home, playground apparatus, manual training workshop and domestic science department have all been theroughly overhauled and put in perfect condition for use during the session.

The gymnasium and swimming pool are in readiness also.

readiness also.

The faculty is composed largely teachers who have been in the scho teachers who have been in the school here before, only seven new names appearing on the list.

There will be 14 of the teachers who will live in the teachers' home, which has proven to be a splendid plan for the comfortable, practical and home-like housing of the teachers.

The largest attendance in the history of the schools is expected this year, and preparations have been made by Superintendent Harvey Heidelberg to meet these conditions.

neet these conditions Additional equipment has been placed in the buildings and on the grounds, and a larger teaching force engaged. Forty teachers and assistants have arrived to be in readiness for the opening of the schools tomorrow.

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—" After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and Iwould have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottlesofVegetableCompound and used Lydia E Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, Orpheum.

"Frivolics." a musical rainbow, colorful in beautiful girls, croony tunes and elaborate settings, will be the feature attraction at the Orpheum this week. "Frivolics" was conceived and staged by William Seabury, the special music and tyrics are by Billie Shaw and Buddy Cooper. Mr. Seabury, who plays the lead in "Frivolics" has assembled a remarkable little company of six comely girls. The girls are not chorus girls. They are solosists and each-has a reputation of her own. Bobby Randall is "The Melodious Mirthquake." Randall sings and tells stories in a manner all of his own and this manner has made him an everwelcome monologist. Billy Dale and Bunny Birch have an exceedingly laughable tuneful comedy skit called "The Riding Master" which affords Dale and Birch a chance for a great deal of good natured fun and spoofing, also an opportunity for songs and dancing. Oliver Smith and company have a comedy playlet "A Touch in Time." It is an admirable example of skillful construction. Each bit of dramatic material abounds in laughs. Smith and Millar are two able comedians. Both are of The same quartet of film celebrities who made "On With the Dance" such a splendid success combined to make "The Right to Love," which will be the screen attraction at the Strand theater all this week. George Fitzmaurice produced the picture; Oulda Bergere furnished the scenario, and Mae Murray and David Powell are the featured players. The picture is a pleasing combination of beautiful scenes and dramatic action. The locale is Turkey and the heroine played by Miss Murray.

Majestic.

Rupert Hughes is one of the most pouniar and prolific of American writers. "Scratch My Back," now at the Majestic, first appeared as a govel, and sold in tremendous quantities. Mr. Hughes wrote every one of the titles for the screen version, and took an active personal interest in its picturisation. It is the first Eminent Authors comedy and conclusively bears out Samuel Goldwyn's belief that motion pictures made from great books with the personal co-operation of the author will revolutionize the present standards of the screen.

Dual roles by photoplay stars are becoming a positive fad and no more pleasing delineator of them is offered in filmland than charming Norma Taimade in "Yes or No?" her latest and best picture, which is at the Princeas Monday and Tuesday. This dainty star appears in two distinctly different characterizations, startlingly unlike each other.
